The Music of World War I

*April 14 | 2:00
Community Room*

Presented by Dale C. Evans and Hannah Kerrigan

The music of the Great War reflected America's progress from strict neutrality and even opposition to the conflict, to all out support of the Allied cause. Sometimes bitter reflection followed the Armistice.

This program will consist of a display of WWI sheet music, 78RPM recordings played on a vintage Victorola, and Dale & Hannah's interpretation of several popular songs about the war. There will also be an audience "sing-along" of a few well known songs from the period.
